Mandatory questions

Note: You may be eligible under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 to state that you have no criminal record even if you do have convictions. For more information, please refer to the Ministry of Justice Website.

Each application will be considered on its individual merits. When assessing whether an applicant is a fit and proper person, WorkSafe New Zealand will take into account any matters it considers relevant, particularly the information provided below.

Answer the following questions by ticking the box that applies to you.

1. Have you had any document or certificate of compliance (or similar licence or document) suspended, cancelled or revoked (in any country)? ☐ Yes ☐ No
2. Have you (in any country) previously had an application for a document or certificate rejected? ☐ Yes ☐ No
3. Have you been convicted for any criminal offence (in any country)? ☐ Yes ☐ No
4. Are you presently facing charges for any offences (in any country)? ☐ Yes ☐ No
5. Do you have any other information relevant to the WorkSafe's assessment of whether you are a fit and proper person? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If you ticked yes to any of the questions above, give details here.

Include an explanation of the circumstances and steps taken to address this issue, and attach any evidence to support these steps (such as references, certificates etc) Your application is likely to progress more quickly if the information you provide is complete.

Fit and proper person

Criminal history

Please attach a copy of your current New Zealand criminal record. This is available from the Ministry of Justice. Please also attach a copy of your criminal record history from all countries outside of New Zealand in which you have lived for more than 12 consecutive months within the last five years. Your report must be no more than three months old.

Please list any attachments:

The Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 provides a clean slate scheme for eligible individuals, preventing access to their criminal records. You must disclose all your convictions if you are not protected by this scheme.

Should you be appointed to the Board and it is established you provided false or misleading information to the matters on this form your appointment may be terminated. The same applies if you are no longer a fit and proper person.

Consent

I authorise the collection by and this disclosure to WorkSafe for any of the following information about me for the purposes of determining my fit and proper status. I understand that this information may be collected from, and disclosed by, any relevant person, organisation, or government department (including in Australia).
